

Blue Planet

Space tourism has given us a new perspective on our beautiful blue planet. Suspended in the solar system, hung between planets, constantly spinning on its axis and rolling on the tracks of its orbit. Night and day, summer, winter, autumn and fall; through eclipses, solstices, equinoxes, extreme weather events and all the endeavours of humankind... What a wonder it is!

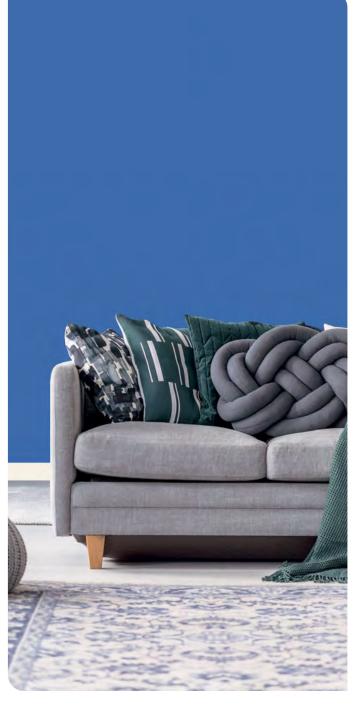

The Colour of the Year for 2026, Blue Planet is a love song to the vast skies above and the fathomless oceans below. A mid-blue that evokes the hue of the sky just before dusk or dawn, it is a staple colour in nature's palette. Find it on the petals of cornflowers and hydrangeas, in the plumes of splendid blue wrens and robins, glinting like sapphires in the eyes of white tigers and huskies... Blue Planet is everywhere.

Globally the most often-cited 'favourite colour', blue is calming, soothing, grounding. It is associated with order, civility and decorum – a welcome antidote to chaos, brutality and mayhem. Against the backdrop of our dynamically changing world, Blue Planet is the colour of reason and a breath of fresh air.

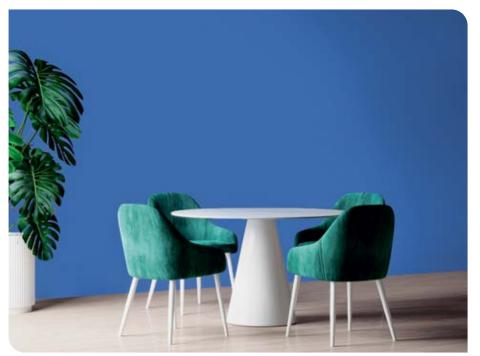

Endlessly versatile, Blue Planet can sit comfortably in every interior space. It makes a fabulous foil for cool whites, light greys and jade greens. Use it sparingly as an accent colour on architraves and skirting. Pair it with complementary orange for a burst of energy that positively sings. Bring home the beauty, the serenity and the harmony of Blue Planet.

White

A blank canvas. A fresh sheet of paper. White is freedom – the freedom to curate your own visual storytelling. And yet – white is also an acutely sensitive chameleon. The merest hint of another hue changes its mood. A drop of icy blue turns it cool and formal. A pat of buttery yellow makes it warm and cosy. Choose your white and write your story.

Grey

Smooth pebbles and volcanic sand. Sun-bleached bark and wind-whipped cliffs. Grey is nature's quiet companion, content to take a back seat to textures and forms. In decorating as in nature, this unobtrusive yet elegant colour provides the perfect backdrop for collections of art, statement furniture, and standout accessories. Do grey your way.

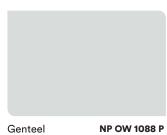

Genteel

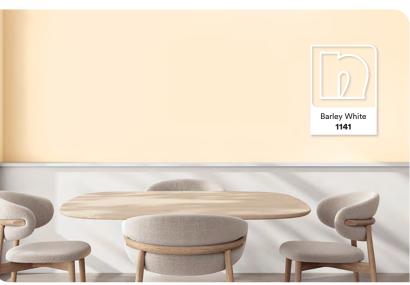

Lapped by the Mediterranean, fringed by mountains, laden with history and culture, France is the world's most visited country. Souvenir her colours – from the vivid turquoise waters of the French Riviera to the sun-blanched stone of centuries-old buildings – in your chic maison.

Majestic natural beauty abounds in friendly Canada, where the weather's cold and the smiles are warm. Maple trees line streets, fill forests – and (fun fact) produce over 80 percent of the world's maple syrup. Gather the gorgeous colours of maple leaves in fall – fiery red, orange, russet and gold.

Trends reflect and distil the world around us at a given moment in time. Should they survive, they are elevated to the status of timeless style. If a trend calls your name, why not answer its call? Test it. Live with it. If you love it, build on it. If you love it only for a while, let it go. The key word here is 'fun'. Paint is arguably the fastest and most affordable way to embrace a trend. Have fun with it!
